Broadlands Primary School is looking to appoint a motivated and passionate Learning and Social Support Assistant to join our team. We are a friendly, community focused school situated in the picturesque Cathedral City of Hereford, adjacent to Aylestone School, the Herefordshire Colleges' campus for Further Education, and 10 minutes' walk from the city railway station.

The role involves working with the class teacher to provide learning and social support to pupils.

We would be interested in hearing from you if:

- You have previous experience of working with children of primary school age;
- You have enthusiasm and a strong commitment to achievement, safeguarding and welfare of all children;
- You have excellent communication skills;
- You have a sense of humour and the ability to inject fun into support for learning;
- You have high expectations of pupil behaviour and excellent behaviour management skills;
- You are flexible, accommodating and a team player; and
- You have relevant qualifications for the role.

Governors are keen to continue to recruit practitioners of high quality with dedication and a passion for delivering excellent learning opportunities for children whilst supporting the school's values culture. If you are interested, contact Miss R Healey on 01432 266772, or to discuss the post over the phone with Mrs C Willis, Head of Primaries.

Broadlands Primary School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Successful applicants will be required to provide a DBS Disclosure.

Closing date for applications: Friday 18th September 2026

Interviews: To Be Confirmed
